GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

We specialise in providing first class event staff, hostesses and promotional staff for a wide range of unique parties, product launches, conferences and events.

Article I : Order

Any provision of services must be confirmed in writing as soon as possible, either by a purchase order, or by affixing your "good for agreement" with the commercial proposal attached.

Article II : Validation and Payment

100% of amount T.T.C. will have to be versed with the order; That may be by swift transfer (if so, we'll send you our bank details), or you can pay cash (euros) or by a cheque (absolutely in euros). This last way can be usefull especially if you confirm short term before the event starts.

This is very important because our agency have the right to stop the given service if you did not make any payment.

Article III : Penalty of delay

In the event of late payment, the customer will be indebted of a post maturity interest at the statutory rate of 1,5% without giving place to setting in residence (law of December 31, 1992).

Article IV : Cancellation

In the event of cancellation after the signature of this estimate, the installment will be restored if this one intervenes 48 hours before the beginning of the operation; after this period, the installment will be preserved.

Article V : Applicable duty - Litigations

Any relative difficulties with care of the present contract will be subjected, for lack of amicable agreement, to the Commercial court of the spring of the head office of MAHOLA Hostesses.
