Informa Third Party Compliance Clause

Definitions.

"Anti-Corruption Laws" means any applicable foreign or domestic anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations, as amended or restated from time to time, which may be in force at the time of the Agreement (such as the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 1977), and for any laws that become enacted hereafter.

"Bribery and Corruption" means the abuse of entrusted power for private gain, including but not limited to the offering, promising, giving, accepting or soliciting of an advantage as an inducement for an action which is illegal, unethical, a breach of trust or any other improper action, or to reward a person, company or Government body for such improper performance. Inducements can take the form of gifts, loans, fees, rewards or other advantages (taxes, services, donations, etc).

"The Client's Personnel" means The Client's officers, directors, employees or any other person acting on behalf of you or your company.

"Informa" means Informa Australia Pty Ltd.

1. The Client represents, warrants and undertakes that:
 - 1.1 in obtaining and in performing its obligations under this Agreement, neither it nor The Client's Personnel has:
 - i. done or will do any act or thing that contravenes the Anti-Corruption Laws;
 - ii. not failed or omitted to do any act or thing to ensure compliance with the Anti-Corruption Laws;
 - 1.2 it will notify Informa immediately on becoming aware of any breach of this clause;
 - 1.3 it has and will maintain in place throughout the term of this Agreement its own policies and procedures to ensure compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and will enforce them where appropriate;
 - 1.4 it will keep full and accurate books and records of all costs, charges and payments made in connection with this Agreement, which it will make available to Informa and/or its duly authorized representatives as deemed reasonably necessary by Informa to verify The Client's compliance with this Agreement and/or Anti-Corruption Laws;
2. Any failure by The Client to comply with clause 1 shall entitle Informa to terminate this Agreement immediately at no cost, liability or penalty to Informa and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that may have accrued to Informa's benefit under or in connection with this Agreement.
