

ESCRITO DE CONFIDENCIALIDAD

Milan, November 2nd 2011

Secretaría de Gobernación

Centro de Investigación y Seguridad Nacional

The undersigned Valeriano Bedeschi, acting in his capacity as Director and legal representative of HT S.r.l, confirm that – for the contract effectiveness period – he may have access to information and issues related to the National Security, due to the acquisition of Remote Control System by the decentralized administrative authority of Secretaría de Gobernación named Centro de Investigación y Seguridad Nacional.

I also declare to know and be aware of the content of Articles no. 53 and 54 of National Security Law, establishing as follows:

“Article 53.- Suppliers of public authority whose work is related to the Council or to the Center, and any other supplier or anyone else having access to the information related to the National Security, should sign a a written confidentiality declaration to observe all the time, even after the task by which the access was obtained has been ceased.”

“Article 54.- The person which for some reason is became aware or acquires knowledge of products, sources, methods, actions or intelligence operations, records or information originated from the activities intended with this Law, must avoid any kind of circulation in any form and take the needed actions to avoid any kind of disclosure.”

All said above, I agree to preserve the secret and confidentiality intended in the legal measures, I will prevent any kind of disclosures, inside and outside the national territory, in any language, and will take the needed actions to avoid the disclosure of the information I have access to; especially, the information related to personal data of public employees of the Center; rules, procedures, methods, sources, products, actions or operations, or intelligence records for National Security; technical specifications, technology or equipment useful in the generation of National Security; financial statements, projections, results and prospects; communication programs, information or customer lists or bidders, suppliers, thematic information databases, operating systems and information logistics; specific organizational manuals, policies, guidelines, files, supplies, confidential information, government information, proprietary and exclusive practices of the Centre, preventing the spread of its content or reproduction in any way, understanding that I am forbidden to possess, dispose of, documents containing the described information and assuming in this act the civil or criminal liability that may result from the non-observance of this act of confidentiality.

In accordance to what mentioned above, I hereby declare to answer and clarify all the misunderstandings that may occur regarding the information I have access to.

Best Regards

Valeriano Bedeschi

-----