Thanks so much Tee,

If you organise this in google calendar then we can all see Mark's schedule and try to insert other meetings accordingly.

On our shared SCL/CA google calendar you can view anyone else in the company's schedule by searching their name in the lower lefthand corner in "calendars".

Let us know if you need any help with that, and then we can make live changes that will be shared with everyone in real time (will save you lots of headache and late nights next week)!

Best,
