Already on it Tee

I am already in contact with the DPM's Political Secretary who will be handling personally our courtesy call.

For security reasons, while the slots may have already be set, they will confirm only last minute.

I would expect to know for certain only when the DPM arrives in NY.

Hi Azrin,

Thanks for the super effort in getting the green light for breakfast meeting. Now let's secure a time! I suggest 8am slot, before UN session. Alternatively, Mark is also happy to meet on 22nd or 23rd anytime before 6pm. We can let the DPM's staff suggest location.

It would be great if you could prepare the brief for Mark, in the meantime. It will be great if he (and possibly, Alexander and Brittany) is well prepared for this unique opportunity.

Have a nice weekend! Thanks very much again.

Very many thanks,

Tee
